Select the article you want, click the box on the left and then click "Document Delivery" on the right.

The screenshot shows the Ovid Search Form interface in Microsoft Internet Explorer. The browser window title is "Ovid: Search Form - Microsoft Internet Explorer". The address bar shows the URL: <http://ovidsp.tx.ovid.com/sp-3.3.1a/ovidweb.cgi>. The search results are displayed in a table with columns for "All", "Select Range", "Print", "Email", "Export", "Add to My Projects", and "Keep Selected". The search information on the left indicates that the search terms used were "stroke.m_titl." and "stroke", resulting in 42404 results. The search results are sorted by "Too many results to sort". The first article is selected, and the "Document Delivery" option is highlighted in the right-hand menu. A red arrow points from the "Document Delivery" option to the "Document Delivery" option in the right-hand menu.
