Part D: eKG User Records Notice

Please read this notice before you provide any Personal Data to us.

The Hospital Authority (HA) provides eKG services for its staff members and selective external healthcare professionals. Our staff may ask you to provide your Personal Data for purposes related to the eKG services.

When you provide Personal Data to us, please make sure that the data is accurate and complete. If you fail to provide us with the information required or if the information provided is inaccurate or incomplete, our provision of eKG services to you will be affected.

Please also note that your Personal Data may be made available to:

1. appropriate persons in the HA;
2. government or ex-subservent organizations or any other relevant parties who require it for matters related to the eKG services; or
3. any relevant government departments/appropriate authorities when the HA is required to provide it under the relevant legislation for use for the purposes of that legislation.

In addition to the above, we will only use, disclose or transfer the Personal Data you provide to us:

1. for those purposes relating to the eKG services or directly related purposes; or
2. where permitted by law.

We will obtain your consent before using your Personal Data for any other purposes.

If you wish to require access to and/or correction of your Personal Data, you may do so under Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. For request(s), please contact Knowledge Management Unit, Hospital Authority.

Part E: User Agreement

This agreement shall be binding upon eKG account holder.

1. The eKG account provided is to be used for a SINGLE logon to eKG at a time on a single workstation. More than one concurrent logon with the same eKG account is strictly prohibited.
2. The user should not disclose the account login information and password to a third party.
3. The eKG account and the subscription cannot be shared or transferred.
4. All Hospital Authority materials published in eKG remain the property of the Hospital Authority, and subject to copyright protection. Links to and information from third party web sites are provided for users' convenience only. Users are advised to make their own clinical discretion and judgement in using the information on eKG. HA accepts no responsibility nor liability over the misuse of the materials.
5. The user should observe any other conditions as stipulated by the relevant database and software provider(s), and the copyright notice(s) displayed on the screens.
6. HA reserves the right to vary the provision of electronic resources. The decision will be based on publishers' current licensing conditions. Any changes will be posted on eKG.
7. Subscription payments cannot be refunded.
8. Users of HA library services are bound by all library regulations in force.

9. Late return of borrowed books will incur an overdue fine of $5/day.
10. Loss/damage of borrowed books will incur a charge of the cost for replacement plus 10% surcharge.
11. Hospital Authority reserves the right to withhold usage of the eKG account and library services if eKG or library services are abused.
